

INDEX TO VOLUME IV.

- Acid milk feeding (Lewis H. F. Thatcher), 242.
- ADDISON, OSWALD: Congenital valvular obstruction of the urethra, 255.
- Albers-Schomberg disease, 246.
- ALEXANDER W. ALISTER (Charles McNeil and Agnes R. Macgregor): Studies of pneumonia in childhood. I. Statistical analysis of pneumonia and bronchitis, 12—II. Alveolar (lobar) pneumonia, 83—III. Broncho-pneumonia, 111—IV. Bronchiectasis and fibrosis of the lung, 170—V. Empyema, 270—Slowly resolving pneumonia in children, 244.
- Alkaptonuric infant, metabolic study of an (Frances Braid and Evelyn M. Hickmans), 389.
- Anaphylaxis, acute, to cow's milk protein (H. T. Ashby), 242.
- Aorta, coarctation of the (A. P. Thomson and F. W. M. Lamb), 377.
- Arachnodaetly (Maurice L. Young), 190.
- ASHBY, H. T.: Acute anaphylaxis to cow's milk protein, 242—Acute sensitization in an infant to cow's milk protein, 264.
- BAZIN, ELEANOR V. (I. M. Rabinowitch): Statistical study of skeletal growth in juvenile diabetes, 125.
- Blood chemistry in hypertrophic pyloric stenosis, changes in (Stanley Graham and Noah Morris), 335.
- Blood, carbon-dioxide dissociation curve of in infancy and childhood (Noah Morris and Stanley Graham), 299.
- Blood in acute rheumatism—acid-base equilibrium of the (Leonard G. Parsons and S. H. Edgar), 291.
- Blood sugar curve in childhood, glucose tolerance and (Mary L. Gilchrist), 129.
- Brachydaetly in a child, its mother, and aunt (Robert Marshall), 243—Note on a family with (Robert Marshall), 385.
- BRAID, FRANCES (and Evelyn M. Hickmans): Metabolic study of an alkaptonuric infant, 389.
- BRAY, G. W. (and Donald Armour): Infections as a source of recurrent epileptiform seizures in children, 138.
- British Paediatric Association: Proceedings of the second annual general meeting, 242.
- Bronchiectasis, 170.
- Bronchiectasis, different types of (Charles McNeil), 244.
- Bronchitis in childhood, statistical analysis of, 12.
- Broncho-pneumonia, 111.
- Broncho-pneumonia in children, bacteriology of (W. Glen Liston), 283.
- BROWN, MURIEL J.: The laevulose test in rheumatic and choreic children, 76.
- BROWN, WILLIAM: Congenital hydronephrosis, 246.
- Butyric acidity, recurrent attacks of, in pyloric spasm and pyloric stenosis (C. Paget Lapage), 242.
- CAMERON, HECTOR: Trismus neonatorum, 244.
- CAPON, NORMAN: Idiopathic hypertrophy of the heart, 245.
- Carbon-dioxide dissociation curve of the blood in infancy and childhood (Noah Morris and Stanley Graham), 299.
- Cardiac clinic and hospital, their value in the control of the rheumatic infection (Leonard Findlay, James W. Macfarlane, and Mary M. Stevenson), 306.
- Cardiac disease, congenital, in identical twins (K. Shirley Smith), 330.
- Chorea treated by nirvanol (Bernard Schlesinger), 243.
- Choreic children, the laevulose test in (Muriel J. Brown), 76.
- CONN, J. C. M. (and Shepherd Dawson): The intelligence of epileptic children, 142.
- Cow's milk, see Milk.
- CRAIG, JOHN D. (and T. Hartley Martin): Ultra-violet radiation in the treatment of tuberculosis in childhood, 47.
- DAWSON, SHEPHERD (and J. C. M. Conn): The intelligence of epileptic children, 142.
- Diabetes, juvenile, skeletal growth in (I. M. Rabinowitch and Eleanor V. Bazin), 125.
- Diet, variation of in rheumatic children (A. P. Thomson and S. H. Edgar), 152.
- Dysentery in this country, present incidence of (D. N. Nabarro), 243.
- Dysentery of unusual type (E. Bellingham Smith), 243.
- Dysplasia, hereditary ectodermal (Jean Smith), 215.
- EDGAR, S. H. (and A. P. Thomson): The effect of variation of the diet in rheumatic children, 152—(and Leonard G. Parsons): The acid-base equilibrium of the blood in acute rheumatism, 291.
- Embolism, pulmonary, in childhood (J. M. Smellie), 328.
- Emphysema, extensive surgical (E. Bellingham Smith), 244.
- Emphysema, subcutaneous (H. Morley Fletcher), 244.
- Empyema, 270.
- Endarteritis obliterans, extensive visceral (John McMichael), 165.
- Enuresis in hospital practice (Kathleen M. Horton), 105.
- Epileptic children, the intelligence of (Shepherd Dawson and J. C. M. Conn), 142.
- Epileptiform seizures in children, infections as a source of (Donald Paterson and G. W. Bray), 138.
- Fibrosis of the lung, 170.
- FINDLAY, G. MARSHALL (and Ruby O. Stern): A syndrome in the rat resembling pink disease in man, 1.
- FINDLAY, LEONARD (James Macfarlane and Mary M. Stevenson): The cardiac clinic and hospital: their value in the control of the rheumatic infection, 306—Tonsillectomy in the prevention and treatment of acute rheumatism, 313.
- FLETCHER, H. MORLEY: Subcutaneous emphysema in children, 244.
- GILCHRIST, MARY L.: Glucose tolerance and the blood sugar curve in childhood, 129.
- Glucose tolerance and the blood sugar curve in childhood (Mary L. Gilchrist), 129.
- GRAHAM, STANLEY (and Noah Morris): The carbon-dioxide dissociation curve of the blood in infancy and childhood, 299—Changes in the blood chemistry in congenital hypertrophic pyloric stenosis and their clinical significance, 335.

- Haematuria, chronic, ending in uraemia (Dr. Thursfield), 243.
- Heart displacement in pneumonia in childhood (Kenneth H. Tallerman and Montague H. Jupe), 230.
- Heart, idiopathic hypertrophy of (Norman Capon), 246.
- Heart, rheumatic, in childhood, the leucocyte count in (C. Bruce Perry), 249.
- Hernia, diaphragmatic (J. S. Y. Rogers), 245.
- HICKMANS, EVELYN M. (and Frances Braid): Metabolic study of an alkaptonuric infant, 389.
- HOBHOUSE, E. W. NEILL: Case of spinal birth injury, 245.
- HORTON, KATHLEEN M.: Enuresis in hospital practice, 105.
- HUTCHISON, ROBERT: Paroxysmal sneezing in whooping-cough, 243.
- Hydronephrosis, congenital (William Brown), 246.
- Hypertelorism, Hereditary, without mental deficiency (T. McCowatt Montford), 381.
- Infant mortality, see Mortality.
- Infections as a source of recurrent epileptiform seizures in children (Donald Paterson and G. W. Bray), 138.
- JAMESON, H. P.: Remote prognosis of pneumonia, 365.
- JUPE, MONTAGUE H. (and Kenneth H. Tallerman): Displacement of the heart in pneumonia in childhood, 230.
- Laevulose test in rheumatic and choreic children (Muriel J. Brown), 76.
- LAMB, F. W. M. (and A. P. Thomson): Case of coarctation of the aorta, 377.
- LAPAGE, C. PAGET: Recurrent attacks of butyric acidity in pyloric spasm and pyloric stenosis, 242.
- Leucocyte count in rheumatic heart disease in childhood (C. Bruce Perry), 247.
- LIGHTWOOD, R. C. (and Alan Moncrieff): Paroxysmal sneezing in whooping-cough, 240.
- LISTON, W. GLEN: The bacteriology of broncho-pneumonia in children, 283.
- MACFARLANE, JAMES W. (Leonard Findlay and Mary M. Stevenson): The cardiac clinic and hospital: their value in the control of rheumatic infection, 306—Tonsillectomy in the prevention and treatment of acute rheumatism, 313.
- MACGREGOR, AGNES R. (Charles McNeil and W. Alister Alexander): Studies of pneumonia in childhood. I. Statistical analysis of pneumonia and bronchitis, 12—II. Alveolar (lobar) pneumonia, 83—III. Broncho-pneumonia, 111—IV. Bronchiectasis and fibrosis of the lung, 170—V. Empyema, 270.
- McMICHAEL, JOHN: Extensive visceral endarteritis obliterans in a young child, 164.
- McNEIL, CHARLES (Agnes R. Macgregor and W. Alister Alexander): Studies of pneumonia in childhood. I. Statistical analysis of pneumonia and bronchitis, 12—II. Alveolar (lobar) pneumonia, 83—III. Broncho-pneumonia, 111—IV. Bronchiectasis and fibrosis of the lung, 170—V. Empyema, 270—Different types of bronchiectasis in children, 244.
- MACRAE, OLIVE: The estimation of the phase of the disease in rickets, 95.
- MARSHALL, ROBERT: Brachydactyly in a child, its mother, and aunt, 243—Note on a family with brachydactyly, 385.
- MARTIN, T. HARTLEY (and John D. Craig): Ultra-violet radiation in the treatment of tuberculosis in childhood, 47.
- MENZIES, HILDA F.: Racial variation in relation to infant mortality in the four principal Scottish towns, 33.
- Milk, cow's, acute sensitization in an infant to the protein of (Hugh T. Ashby), 264.
- Milk feeding, acid (Lewis H. F. Thatcher), 242.
- MOLL, H. H.: Pink disease, with special reference to the neurological findings in a series of fatal cases, 245.
- MONCRIEFF, ALAN (and R. C. Lightwood): Paroxysmal sneezing in whooping-cough, 240.
- MONTFORD, T. McCOWATT: Hereditary hypertelorism without mental deficiency, 381.
- MORLEY, R. H.: Case of probable ante-natal tuberculous infection, 227.
- MORRIS, NOAH (and Stanley Graham): The carbon-dioxide dissociation curve of the blood in infancy and childhood, 299—Changes in the blood chemistry in congenital hypertrophic pyloric stenosis and their clinical significance, 335.
- Mortality, infantile, racial variation in relation to (Hilda F. Menzies), 33.
- NABARRO, D. N.: The present incidence of dysentery in this country, 243.
- Nirvanol in the treatment of chorea (Bernard Schlesinger), 243.
- Oesophagus, Obstruction of in childhood (Wilfrid Sheldon and A. G. Ogilvie), 347.
- OGILVIE, A. G. (and Wilfrid Sheldon): Obstruction of the Oesophagus in childhood, 347.
- Osteomyelitis, acute, followed by purulent pericarditis (T. Meyrick Thomas), 67.
- Osteosclerosis fragilis (Albers-Schomberg disease) (L. G. Parsons and K. D. Wilkinson), 246.
- PARSONS, LEONARD G.: Osteosclerosis fragilis (Albers-Schomberg disease), 246—Three cases of pellagra in one family, 246—(and S. H. Edgar): The acid-base equilibrium of the blood in acute rheumatism, 291.
- PATERSON, DONALD (and G. W. Bray): Infections as a source of recurrent epileptiform seizures in children, 138.
- Pellagra (L. G. Parsons), 246.
- Pericarditis, purulent, following acute osteomyelitis (T. Meyrick Thomas), 67.
- Peritonitis, pneumococcal (Wilkie Scott), 246.
- PERRY, C. BRUCE: The leucocyte count in rheumatic heart disease in childhood, 247.
- Pink disease in man resembled by a syndrome in the rat (G. Marshall Findlay and Ruby O. Stern), 1.
- Pink disease, with special reference to the neurological findings in a series of fatal cases (C. W. Vining and H. H. Moll), 246.
- Pleurisy, non-tuberculous plastic, in children (Walter M. Whitaker), 323.
- Pneumococcal peritonitis (Wilkie Scott), 246.
- Pneumonia in childhood, heart displacement in (Kenneth H. Tallerman and Montague H. Jupe), 230.
- Pneumonia in childhood, studies of (Charles McNeil, Agnes R. Macgregor, and W. Alister Alexander), 12, 83, 111, 170, 270.
- Pneumonia in childhood, statistical analysis of, 12.
- Pneumonia in infancy, with special reference to the subcutaneous administration of oxygen (C. Wilfred Vining), 244.
- Pneumonia: remote prognosis in (H. P. Jameson), 365.
- Pneumonia, slowly resolving (W. A. Alexander), 244.
- POYNTON, F. J.: Case of (?) renal teratoma, 246.
- PRITCHARD, ERI: Treatment of pyloric stenosis, 243.
- Protein, cow's milk, acute sensitization to, in an infant (Hugh T. Ashby), 264.
- Pulmonary embolism in childhood (J. M. Smellie), 328.
- Pyloric spasm and pyloric stenosis, recurrent attacks of butyric acidity in (C. Paget Lapage), 242.
- Pyloric stenosis, hypertrophic, changes in the blood chemistry in (Stanley Graham and Noah Morris), 335.
- Pyloric stenosis, treatment of (Eric Pritchard), 243.
- RABINOWITCH, I. M. (and Eleanor V. Bazin): Statistical study of the rate of skeletal growth in juvenile diabetes, 125.
- Racial variation in relation to infant mortality (Hilda F. Menzies), 33.

- Renal teratoma (?) (F. J. Poynton), 246.
- Rheumatic children, effect of variation of diet in (A. P. Thomson and S. H. Edgar), 152.
- Rheumatic children, the laevulose test in (Muriel J. Brown), 76.
- Rheumatic fever, topography and pathogenesis of lesions in (A. F. Bernard Shaw), 155.
- Rheumatic heart disease in childhood, the leucocyte count in (C. Bruce Perry), 247.
- Rheumatic, acute, acid-base equilibrium of the blood in (Leonard G. Parsons and S. H. Edgar), 291.
- Rheumatism, acute, tonsillectomy in the prevention and treatment of (Leonard Findlay, James W. Macfarlane, and Mary M. Stevenson), 313.
- Rickets, the phase of the disease in (Olive Macrae), 95.
- ROGERS, J. S. Y.: Case of diaphragmatic hernia, 245.
- SCHLESINGER, BERNARD: Treatment of chorea by nirvanol, 243.
- SCOTT, WILKIE: Cases of pneumococcal peritonitis, 246.
- SHAW, A. F. BERNARD: Topography and pathogenesis of lesions in rheumatic fever, 155.
- SHELDON, WILFRID (and A. G. Ogilvie): Obstruction of the Esophagus in childhood, 347.
- Skeletal growth in diabetes, see Diabetes.
- SMELLIE, J. M.: Pulmonary embolism in childhood, 328.
- SMITH, E. BELLINGHAM: Attack of dysentery of unusual type, 243—Extensive surgical emphysema in a case of broncho-pneumonia, 244—Thallium acetate poisoning, 245.
- SMITH, JEAN: Hereditary ectodermal dysplasia, 245.
- SMITH, K. SHIRLEY: Congenital cardiac disease in identical twins, 330.
- Sneezing in whooping-cough, see Whooping-cough.
- Spinal birth injury (E. W. Neill Hobhouse), 245.
- Stenosis, pyloric, see Pyloric.
- STERN, RUBY O. (and G. Marshall Findlay): A syndrome in the rat resembling pink disease in man, 1.
- STEVENSON, MARY M. (Leonard Findlay and James W. Macfarlane): The cardiac clinic and hospital: their value in the control of the rheumatic infection, 306—Tonsillectomy in the prevention and treatment of rheumatism, 313.
- Syndrome in the rat resembling pink disease in man (G. Marshall Findlay and Ruby O. Stern), 1.
- TALLERMAN, KENNETH H. (and Montague H. Jupe): Displacement of the heart in pneumonia in childhood, 230.
- Teratoma, renal (?) (F. J. Poynton), 246.
- Thallium acetate poisoning (E. Bellingham Smith), 245.
- THATCHER, LEWIS H. F.: Acid milk feeding, 242.
- THOMAS, T. MEYRICK: Case of purulent pericarditis following acute osteomyelitis, 67.
- THOMSON, A. P. (and S. H. Edgar): The effect of variation of the diet in rheumatic children, 152—(and F. W. M. Lamb): Case of coarctation of the aorta, 377.
